

Welcome To Our Open House and Silent Auction

We want to welcome you to our farm by way of opening it to you in the form of an Open House. During the Open House colts will be available to be purchased through a silent auction. See terms and conditions for further explanation of the sale aspect. We are honored that you would consider our horses for your ownership.

We hope to have several exhibitions that will be both entertaining and informative as they pertain to the working and recreational aspects of the farm. There will also be roping demonstrations which show the competitive side. Whether you are coming to explore or to buy or both we want you to feel at home so if you have questions or need help please don't hesitate to ask.

What we hope you find at our farm is a great opportunity to own a beautiful horse that will fulfill all of your dreams whether they be to own a blue roan filly, a breeding horse, an outstanding arena prospect or just that special mount to enjoy in your spare time. What we hope to gain from this event is your respect as breeders and friendship as horse lovers.

See you September 5th

Larry, Flo, Rob, Katherine Anne, Irene and Cody
